DEDICATION

This book is dedicated to our beloved Dr. Burt W. Ayres, who has been associated with Taylor since 1898, serving in the capacities of dean, professor of philosophy, vice-president and acting president. Dr. Ayres is now vice-president emeritus of the university and the man for whom our new Ayres-Alumni Memorial Library is named.

The portrait of Dr. Ayres, which was unveiled on the library dedication day, now hangs in the foyer of the library. It was painted by one of the leading artists of today, Hutton Webster, Jr.

OUR PRESIDENT

While the world is demanding leadership of highest quality, Taylor University has enjoyed another year under the capable leadership of President Clyde W. Meredith. His untiring enthusiasm in his work on the campus as well as off campus in the interests of Taylor students has and shall continue to reap a great harvest. Above all, his great desire is to be a tool in the hands of the Master which will be a benefit to Christian education and further the cause of Christ extending from Taylor throughout the world. His spirit of humility, his sincere testimony and a Christ-like life have challenged those who have come to know him to be refreshed in the Lord. There has been physical evidence as well as unseen fruit of God's blessings upon the school this past year as Dr. Meredith, under the Lord's leadership, has sought to maintain Taylor University as "effectively Christian".

Dr. Burt W. Ayres

As a spiritual giant on the Campus, Dr. Burt Ayres has won the hearts and influenced the lives of many Taylorites through his firm life, testimony and ministry in prayer. This year marks a half century of service for Dr. Ayres to Taylor University. His first association with the College was in 1897 and has effectively continued with a few years' absence until the present time. Since 1946 he has served as Vice President, Emeritus.

Dr. Ayres has given a lasting contribution to Taylor and her students through his teaching and administrative capacities. However, we shall long remember Dr. Ayres for his contribution to the spiritual life on the campus. Our sentiments may best be expressed in the words of Paul, "The saints are refreshed by thee, Brother."

Dr. A. Leland Forrest

The five years of service given us by Dr. A. Leland Forrest have been characterized by leadership and wisdom directed by a mature, practical Christianity. With a background of teaching experience, pastoring, and administration, we have found our Dean an enthusiastic Christian leader and friend. With that unique, potent ability to meet every situation, Dean Forrest has effectively served Taylor. In him we have seen a personification of joy in serving the College, the students, and most of all the Master of his life. His messages have caused us to look beyond our own small sphere and get a new glimpse of the great world in which we live, our responsibility to meet its needs and the opportunities to serve Christ in its many open doors.

BUSINESS OFFICE

Rowena Hoover and Gladys O'Brien; Mrs. Herber; Ann Dunkleberger, Evelyn Myers, Jane Lewis, Laquita Richerson.

Business manager Leslie E. Decker has been kept busy this year in an attempt to maintain economy yet to administer the business of the college effectively. Many improvements have been made this past year which have added to the enjoyment of all on the campus. A new stainless steel cafeteria system was installed; the grill and grocery store were remodeled and equipment added. A linotype machine, press and other equipment were installed in the Print Shop. The Administration Building was remodeled, the business offices have new machines, and the accounting system was revised. These are only a few of the new improvements on the campus from which we receive benefit.

ALUMNI BOARD

The Alumni Board composed of James Alsbaugh, president; Ruth Brose, secretary; Erma Dare, treasurer; Barton Pogue, vice president; and Harold Curly, executive secretary, directed the activities of the Alumni Association for the past year.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

Harold Berk, serving his second year on the Student Council, was elected president for the 1950-51 school year by the student body. By cooperatively working together, the Council sought to solve various problems submitted by the students, as well as complications of the cafeteria system. Various responsibilities were placed upon this governing body such as the reception for new students, class day, move-up day, and work day. It was the Council's desire to increase enjoyment of student life on campus.

Perhaps the outstanding achievement of the year was the passing of the Student Organization Budget which will become operative in the fall of 1951. Class and organization treasurers will appreciate the new fee method of collecting dues. The students, too, will be glad to have one assessment cover all dues. Dr. Ronald D. Jones, Chairman of the Division of Education, was sponsor of the Student Council this year.

Members of the Dormitory Councils are elected to represent each wing of the three dormitories. Throughout the year, the councils seek to carry out the plans in the interests of the dormitory life. Every Wednesday night, counsellors are in charge of wing prayer meetings. Once a month the various dormitories held meetings to discuss problems and business as was necessary. A "Coker Chat" meeting was held for the men's dorms with Dean Forrest as the guest speaker. We pay tribute to our dormitory directors . . . Dave Rathjen, Wisconsin Dormitory; Chuck Micklewright, Swallow Robin; Marian Wilson, Campbell-Magee Dormitory.

BISHOP RICHARD RAINES

MATRICULATION SERVICE
THE PROCESSIONAL

MATRICULATION DAY . . .

The College orchestra played the processional as Bishop Raines, the speaker of the evening, and the faculty marched into Maytag Gymnasium to observe the annual Matriculation exercises. The invocation was given by Professor Joiner, and Professor Butterworth sang, "The Greatest of These." Dean Forrest led the faculty's litany of dedication. The address given by Bishop Raines was entitled "And He Went A Little Further." The topic was very fitting and inspirational. Certainly we felt we also should aspire to "go a little further" during this new year of preparation at Taylor. After a congregational hymn the benediction was given by Dean Forrest.

Ronald Jones, Sponsor, and Don McFarland, Sophomore President.

Don Odle, Sponsor, and Ken Dunkleberger, Junior President.
Richard Chambers, Sponsor, and Lee Smalley, Freshman President.

CLASS DAY . . .

Starring in the skit featured on Class Day was nerve-be-jungled Dave Tropf who by means of psychoanalysis in a quiet room scarcely lighted, was assisted by "Doctor" Snyder in unburdening his mind.

This was the day also when the Freshmen boasted of their green beanies, and the Sophomores revealed the color and emblem of their sweaters; the Juniors and Seniors officially presented their class keys and canes to their respective sponsors.

Up beyond the village border,
Pointing in the air,
Stand her towers seen far distant
When the day is fair.

From the north and south, her students
East and west, are there,
All the nations ope' her portals,
And her blessings share.

Far and wide her fame is spreading,
'Til in ev'ry land,
Men shall hear the name of Taylor,
And her purpose grand.

Chorus—
Gladly our voices echo her praises,
Taylor the school we love,
Gaily her colors float on the breezes,
They our devotion prove.

DORMITORY LIFE . . .

There is never a dull moment in any of the three dormitories on Taylor's campus. The Magee-Campbell dormitory for girls and Wisconsin and Swallow-Robin dormitories for men are used to house the Taylor students. A practical joke is a frequent occurrence in our dorms. Of course inspection of our rooms, an occasional party, and a few demerits on the sideline help to make life interesting.

DOLLS • DECORATIONS
DEVOTIONS

DORMITORY LIFE . . .

The announcement of an engagement brings jubilee and an old-fashioned Taylor bath-tub party. Many study habits are formed and of course much knowledge is received! Dormitory meetings are a source of real enjoyment and Christian fellowship for everyone. Our floor prayer meetings, devotions with our roommates, as well as discussion of spiritual problems with others bring blessings from our Lord. Dormitory life is real living.

TRAILER LIFE . . .

School and privately-owned trailers are homes for about twenty-five families on campus. Part of these trailers are located near the store and postoffice and the rest are parked by the gymnasium. Cosy scenes of domesticity are evidenced by these glimpses of the families of Carroll Stroshine, Paul Bunish, and Ted Smith. The increase in the number of trailers on campus is a post-war phenomena here as well as on other campuses throughout the nation.

COMMITTEES . . .

Under the careful planning of "behind the scenes" committees, Taylor's many activities have proven beneficial to all the student body. School life has only progressed smoothly as members of these foundation builders have been faithful in administering their duties. In addition to the committees pictured here, there are others which include Academic Affairs, Institutional Relations, and Social Activities.

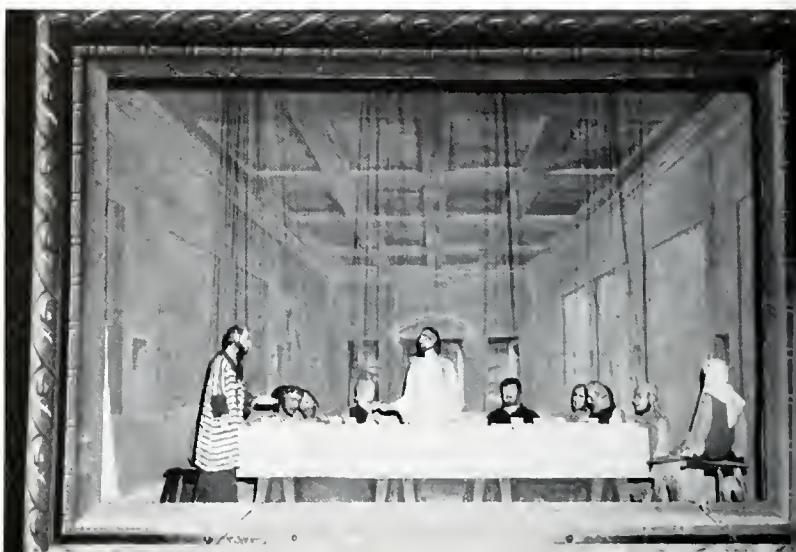
ROBERT VON STEENBURG

ARTIST . . .

Robert Von Steenburg presented a concert of sacred music in chapel in February as one of this year's lyceum numbers. He is the associate director of Penn Grove Bible College in Pennsylvania and active in Youth for Christ, missionary conferences, revivals, and sacred concerts. We agree with Era Peniston, head of the Fine Arts Department at Asbury, who said, "A dynamic personality and brilliant soloist whose success has been for Christ."

STEVENS MARIONETTE THEATRE

On March 30 the Stevens Marionette Theatre presented the only Passion Play in the world performed with marionettes. Martin and Olga Stevens are two most versatile dramatic artists. They not only play all the characters in the Passion Play, but they also carved the wooden puppets and made all the scenery, costumes and properties. The play is the result of ten years' study of the Scriptures and every known version of the Passion.



SERIES . . .

Miss Clare Wellman, former first violinist with the Hour of Charm all-girl chorus and orchestra, presented the second program in our lyceum series the first Friday after Thanksgiving vacation. We thrilled to the music of this artist who also toured as featured soloist with Major Bowes' professional all-girl orchestra. She performs on her prized violin, a beautiful and well-preserved specimen of Nicholoas Gagliana, made in 1751.

CLARE WELLMAN

JEROLD FREDERIC

Jerold Frederic, one of the outstanding pianists of the younger generation, appeared in Shriener Auditorium in January. He has toured extensively in concert work in the United States. Eugene Stimson, music critic of the Chicago Daily News said of him, "In some twenty years of reviewing I have never encountered a pianist with quite Mr. Frederic's poetry." Mr. Frederic transports his own Steinway concert grand piano on his tours.

LES BIENFAISANTES . . .

The Les Bienfaisantes feel that their name is very fitting for a cultural society of a Christian school. The meaning is the "kind, gracious, beneficient ones."

The Society is under the leadership of Janice Rose, president; Margaret Collins, vice-president; Mildred Holmes, secretary; Mary Ann Fleming, treasurer; Barbara Norris, program chairman; and Winnifred Brookover, chaplain. The sponsor of the group is Mrs. Elmer Nussbaum.

At Christmas a banquet for the Freshman girls was held in Recreation Hall. The Les Bienfaisantes met at Mrs. Nussbaum's home for their Valentine party, and a very delightful program. As the occasions arose other special parties were planned and enjoyed by everyone in the society.

GAMMA DELTA BETA . . .

The social highlights of the Gamma Delta Beta cultural society for this year began with a tea for new students at the Meredith home. Initiation for new members took place on November 14 in Recreation Hall. Later in the season the society travelled to Indianapolis to see Sonja Heinie's Ice Revue of 1951. The first activity of the new year was a Valentine Party, and on April 17 some of the daffy dames of the society presented a Fabulous Fashion show of coming things in the fashion world. To conclude the season the society entertained the faculty dames at a mother-and-daughter banquet. The memories of this pleasant and profitable year will bring joy to us in future years. The officers were Anne Watson, president; Mary Babikow, vice president; Eloise Gerig, secretary; Margaret Miller, treasurer; Mary Dahl, chaplain; Lauradean Snooks, program chairman; Romayne Richardson, publicity chairman; and Mrs. Oswalt, sponsor.

LEIALOKE . . .

The girls of the Leialoke Cultural Society, after arrival in the fall at Taylor, had a grand time planning their program for the school year. The first big event was an open meeting for all girls who as yet had not joined a Cultural Society. A clever program was presented, followed by refreshments. This gave the girls who were interested in the society an insight into the purpose of the society and also helped them to get acquainted with the members of the society. Business meetings and other meetings that contributed to social and cultural life were held during the year. A great event of each year is the formal lawn party.

The officers were Frances Hay, president; Evelyn McNeil, secretary; Bessie Carter, treasurer; Mary Lee Wilson, program chairman; Lois Ford, chaplain; and Mrs. Odle, sponsor.

A CAPELLA . . .

Weekend trips and the annual spring tour gave the thirty-seven choir members, under the direction of Professor Donald Butterworth, the opportunity to minister to church audiences, ministerial conferences, and youth meetings. The choir presented three home concerts for the enjoyment of the Youth Conference audience, students, and alumni. The repertoire included scriptural texts from the Psalms, a trilogy of the Life of Christ, negro spirituals, and new arrangements of favorite old hymns.

Floyd Sheppard carried the responsibility of presidency of the Chorale. Assisting him were Betty Thompson, vice president; Doris Oswalt, secretary; Paul Stockman, treasurer; Pauline Breid, chaplain; Don Jennings, riser custodian; Mary Jones and Tom Spencer, robe custodians; Sylvia Groth and Eugene Osborne, librarians.

CHORAL SOCIETY . . .

Each Monday evening the members of the Taylor University Choral Society gathered in Shreiner Auditorium to sing together. The main activities of the chorus were the presentation of the MESSIAH last December under the direction of Professor Donald Butterworth and the CREATION in May under the leadership of Professor Keller.

The directors, as well as the Choral Society members, put many hours of hard labor into the production of the oratorios. The results, however, were equally rewarding and gratifying.

The officers of the Choral Society are as follows: Rueben Goertz, president; Donovan Gerig, vice-president; Lois Weed, secretary; and Stewart Cuthbertson, chaplain.

Orchestral Accompaniment

SYLVIA GROTH, Concert Mistress

ORCHESTRA . . .

The school orchestra provides opportunity for pleasure in musical activity, and along with other definite advantages, academic credit to those who participate. An increase in the number of string instruments has contributed to the strength of the orchestra this year.

Under the able leadership of Professor John Bunish, two major concerts were given by the orchestra during the 1951-1952 season. Miss Sylvia Groth was the honored Mistress of the Orchestra. Orchestral accompaniment was also used for the presentation of the MESSIAH.

THE BAND . . .

The Taylor University Band is continuing to grow in size as well as in efficiency. Professor John Bunish leads the band throughout the many activities of the school year.

The band adds notes of school spirit to the basketball games, football games, and the pep rallies. This year the instrumental group presented a chapel concert, as well as a spring program. A concert of sacred music was given at one of the services of Youth Conference.

Scene from "RELEASE"

Scene from "THE TINKER"

DRAMA SEASON . . .

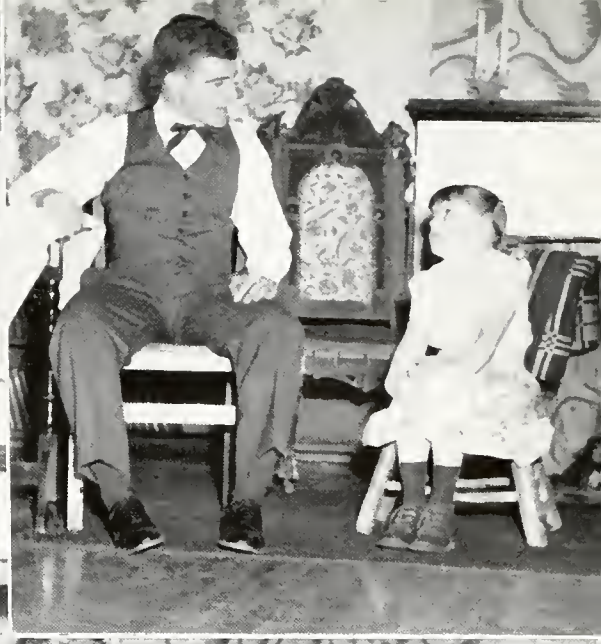
Taylor's drama season opened with the production of a Christmas play, "The Tinker," cast by members of the Dramatic Arts Class.

In the light of this beginning the juniors carried on successfully with their presentation of "The Little Minister," starring Florence Milenz and Douglas Wingeier.

"Release," another Dramatic Arts production, symbolized the true spirit of the Easter season. This moving account of the release of Barabbas from the darkness of a wasted life not only stirred Taylor's audience but many nearby churches as well.

Two one-act plays, "The Bishop's Candlesticks" and "She Stoops to Conquer," completed a forensic festival day in April.

The final production of the year produced by the Dramatic Arts class was "Journey to Boston" given in May to climax a full year of successful dramatic activities.



JUNIOR CLASS PLAY . . .

Under the student director, Gerry Johnson, advised by Mrs. Howard, the Junior Class Play, "The Little Minister," brought a wholesome and enjoyable entertainment to the campus. Co-starring in this year's production were Douglas Wingeier as the Little Minister and Florence Mielenz as the young, mysterious gypsy Babbie. The final act brought a plausible ending because of the heroism of the little minister who had no doubt that his first duty was toward the woman he loved. Other members of the cast included Jean Huffman, Ruth Dixon, Ken Dunkelberger, Ray Snyder, Ned Smith, Lee Truman, Mary Forrest, and Valoyce Nordberg. Assisting in the production were Jim Oliver, Bill Bowers, Claudia Groth, Mary Jones, Bill Carson, and Margaret Miller.

THALOS . . .

"Thalos ever onward" are good words with which to start talking about this society. The goal is to press ever onward in providing better social activities for the cultural enlightenment of Taylor students. This year President Jack Thomas headed the society until he transferred to another school. Then Dan Esau stepped into his office to close a successful year of work. They were assisted in this position by Secretary Franny Hay, Treasurer Stewart Cuthbertson, Chaplain Doc Haifley and Program Chairman Shirley Harvey. Professor Keller as sponsor kept the organization moving.

The main activity of the year is the annual Rush Week. Betty Thompson and Harold Herber were co-chairmen and directed three days of entertainment to show new students what Thalos could do. The opening feature was the Chapel program in which Isaiah, the prophet, told how Christ is the same yesterday, today, and tomorrow. The theme of "Time" was further carried out by a depiction of "All Life's A Stage" which included in miniature the march of time down through the ages. An informal banquet preceded the final variety show, "People Never Change," which played on the fact that although civilization has passed from the Stone Age to an Atomic Age, people are still basically the same. Other activities enjoyed by Thalo members included picnics, parties and various programs.

PHILOS . . .

Under the able leadership of John Nelson and the guidance of Dr. Charbonnier, the Philo society enjoyed another successful year. The theme for Rush week was "Around the World with Philos". Hank Nelson and Mary Dahl served as co-chairmen for this week. The campus was marked by a huge globe which rested upon Taylor's famous rockpile. The globe was white and blue, the Philo colors, and was surrounded by flags of all nations. Posters and hand bills with clever bits of poetry dotted the campus in conspicuous places. In chapel, the Philos produced a skit, directed by Dave LaShana, which depicted the need of the world for the Christ of the cross.

Following a fine dinner, the variety show featured talent from all parts of the globe—a Dutch trio, a trumpeter from France, a barbershop quartet from America.

The fall hayride and many other activities added up to another interesting year for everyone. Philos were reminded this year of the real meaning of their motto, "Lovers of Truth", by the emphasis placed upon the spiritual things throughout the year.

Other officers for the past year were Vice President Al Thompson, Secretary Millie Holmes, Treasurer Larry Bauer, Chaplain Don Granitz, and Sgt. at Arms Paul Gentile.

CHI KAPPA . . .

"Faith the Golden Key" was the motto that once again guided the Pi Eta Chi Kappa Society through a year of successful achievements. Rush day activities began with a chapel program; the banquet was served in an out-door, round-the-fire atmosphere; and the climax came in the presentation of an original production entitled "Embemiscing". Another highlight of first semester was a Truth or Consequences program. Water-filled balloons, chocolate pies, and unexpected shampoos brought an evening filled with fun and surprises for everyone. The Society made and produced a marionette play entitled "The Story of Esther", under the capable leadership of Jack Patton. The members of the society made the puppets and adopted the script for the play from the Old Testament story. Other enjoyable events on the Chi Kappa calendar were indoor and outdoor parties, and interesting well-planned regular meetings. These meetings were made entertaining and profitable through variety programs, skits, lectures by faculty members and by members who came from other countries. Throughout the year in both serious moments and light ones, the members of this Society, led by Dick Unkenholz, have worked together and grown in Christian fellowship. They have remembered and upheld that through Christ, faith is the key that unlocks doors of opportunities.

WORKING GROUPS . . .

There are many opportunities on campus for full time or part time jobs. During the school year 1950-51 there were approximately thirty-five full time staff members and one hundred twenty-five part time student employees. Pictured above is the maintenance crew on whom we depend for heat, janitor service, and many other services.

Once a year, in the spring, school is dismissed for a day so that students may participate in a campus cleanup. This scene is typical of the many projects done by the students on such a day.

The university operates a greenhouse which also flourishes under the care of student employees.

The bookstore was efficiently managed this year by Mrs. Simpson. Especially did we enjoy her interesting window displays.

Chief "cook and bottle washer" for our cafeteria is Bob Harding. Here he is "dishing it out" with the help of Chuck Micklewright and Miriam Senseny.

The library also provides opportunities for working students. The library staff is pictured with Miss Arnold, head librarian, Dr. Valberg, and Mrs. Lindell.

WORKING GROUPS . . .

Hours of waiting in line for registration began the trek around the seasons at Taylor. The first thing we knew snow was here, and there was lots of snowball fun on campus. However, this year we got more snow than we bargained for, and Thanksgiving time found Taylor students "snowed in" at various places in the United States. Those who were on campus enjoyed parlor games and the breathless winter views right here at Taylor. Finally, spring came, and we were so happy to begin spring sports at last.

AROUND THE SEASONS . . .

Singspiration time was popular around all the seasons at Taylor, for there we found Christian fellowship together. Fall events included the annual matriculation day march. Of course, the never-to-be-forgotten event dear to the hearts of underclassmen was the tug-o-war in the messy Mississinewa, won this year by the sophos. Halloween time witnessed all sorts of queer characters around the campus. After the long winter spring projects burst into view, and one most appreciated was the recreation hall mural painted by the design class.

THE ECHO . . .

As the official student newspaper of Taylor University, The Echo during 1950-51 successfully edited thirty issues, with highlights in a special Christmas edition.

The Echo is one of few university papers to be published weekly without direct faculty supervision or support of the journalism department. Edited by David Tropf, assisted by Jeanne Miller, this year's Echo reflected student and faculty opinion through editorials, columns, and interviews. Editorially, the policy of the paper was relatively concerned with the circle of campus activity rather than treading the grounds of national political fields.

Several changes were made in the 1950-51 editions. The paper was printed on a more expensive newsprint to facilitate rapid reading. All headlines featured the modern "flush-left", while make-up followed more conservative rules. This year's Echo is the first to be published by the Taylor University Press, a factor which greatly facilitated editing. A marked increase in space was given to advertisements, solicited by capable business manager, Bob Schenk. His was the fete of successfully keeping the paper "on its feet" financially.

"This Week's" column by Doug Wingier proved to be one of the most read sections of the paper. His "Observations" and "Suggestions" were of ardent interest to Echo fans as they concerned the Taylor "family" circle. The 1950-51 Echo can be modestly termed one of great success, in which it has lived up to its motto "Ye shall know the truth."

THE GEM STAFF . . .

WHO'S

Mr. Harold W. Berk is a native of Blissfield, Michigan. At Taylor Harold's major is mathematics and his minors are physics and German. He has been actively engaged in many school activities such as gospel teams, Science Club, A Capella Choir, and Youth Conference. Two years he was a member of the Student Council, serving as President in his senior year. Looking into the future, Harold plans to enter some type of technical mission work, perhaps teaching or aviation, unless he should be inducted into the army.

Miss Marian Ruth Wilson comes from Coleman, South Dakota, as a Christian education major and a speech minor. Before coming to Taylor, Marian attended Sioux Falls College for two years. She has served as president of the dormitory council, co-chairman of the Youth Conference, and social chairman of the Senior Class. She also participated in football and basketball activities as a cheerleader. Marian became a Christian in 1941 and since then church work of some type has become her life's ambition.

Robert Bell, a history major, attended Buffalo Bible Institute before coming to Taylor. He is also a native of Buffalo, New York. Since coming to Taylor, he has been a student pastor, co-chairman of the Youth Conference Cabinet and editor of the GEM in addition to regular school work and activities on the campus. Following graduation, Bob is planning to travel to Europe in Youth For Christ work, and looking beyond that, he desires to teach in Bible School.

W H O

Mr. Milo Nussbaum has been active in many of the extra-curricular activities of the school. As a senior, Milo was president of the Philosophy and Religion Club, vice president of the Student Council, and a discussion group chairman at Youth Conference. During his stay at Taylor, he has also been an active member of the GEM staff. It is Milo's desire to enter the ministry; his major and minor fields are Religion and Philosophy. Milo came to Taylor from his home in Berne, Indiana, and has a fine family of two children. He likes to hunt in his spare time.

Jeannette Elissa came to us from Jerusalem, Palestine, where she had heard about Taylor from a missionary. She is an English major with a social science minor. It is Jeannette's ambition to teach in secondary school and do some writing. Jeannette was secretary of the 1951 Youth Conference Cabinet. In her Senior year she was also vice president of the English Club. While still in Jerusalem she studied at the Friends Girls' School and accepted the Lord when she was sixteen. She likes to spend her "extra" time in reading, drawing, or knitting.

Robert Schenck spent his early years on a farm near Peoria, Illinois. Bob has been active in various organizations on campus such as the band, orchestra, GEM staff, and the ECHO staff. On week ends he has been busy speaking and playing his saxophone off campus. A very significant event in Bob's life was his trip to Europe in Youth for Christ campaigns the summer between his Junior and Senior years at Taylor. It is Bob's desire to serve the Lord as a medical missionary, perhaps in Ethiopia, in the future.

CLUBS . . .

We have gained a great amount of knowledge in our classrooms, but all too often too large a percentage of that acquired knowledge is lost as we rush around to keep intact our heavy schedules in the academic realm, social whirl, spiritual emphasis and extra-curriculum. So we have found that Divisional Clubs have aided us in retaining some of that classroom material as well as broaden our interests in our various fields of study. It is fun to learn with our classmates apart from the classroom. We have become better acquainted with other students who have the same interests as we have. Club programs have been instructional yet entertaining.

It is the policy of the clubs to meet once a month. Programs are planned by the Program Chairman or committee which will interest all who attend. Lectures by faculty members or guest speakers bring new ideas to students. The medium of visual education has proven effective in the club work. Some of the clubs have taken field trips to neighboring communities and cities. On various occasions the clubs have sponsored banquets and parties to promote the activities of their groups. Students in the Music Club have presented recitals, while members of the Speech Club sponsored an all-day festival with contests, debates, and dramatic productions given for the enjoyment of the public. Into other monthly meetings have come students from other schools to participate with Taylor students or present their own program. The club activities have surely become a very vital part of the student's life on Taylor's campus and much theory from classroom study has become practical knowledge as it is presented in varied ways in Club meetings.

"Must here the burden fall off my back?
Must here the strings that bound it to me crack?
Blest Cross! Blest Sepulchre! blest rather be

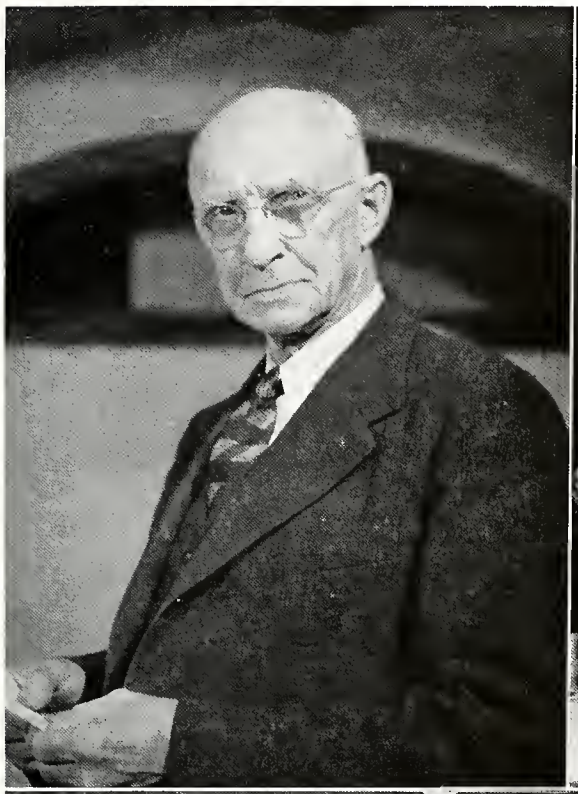
CHAPEL SERVICES . . .

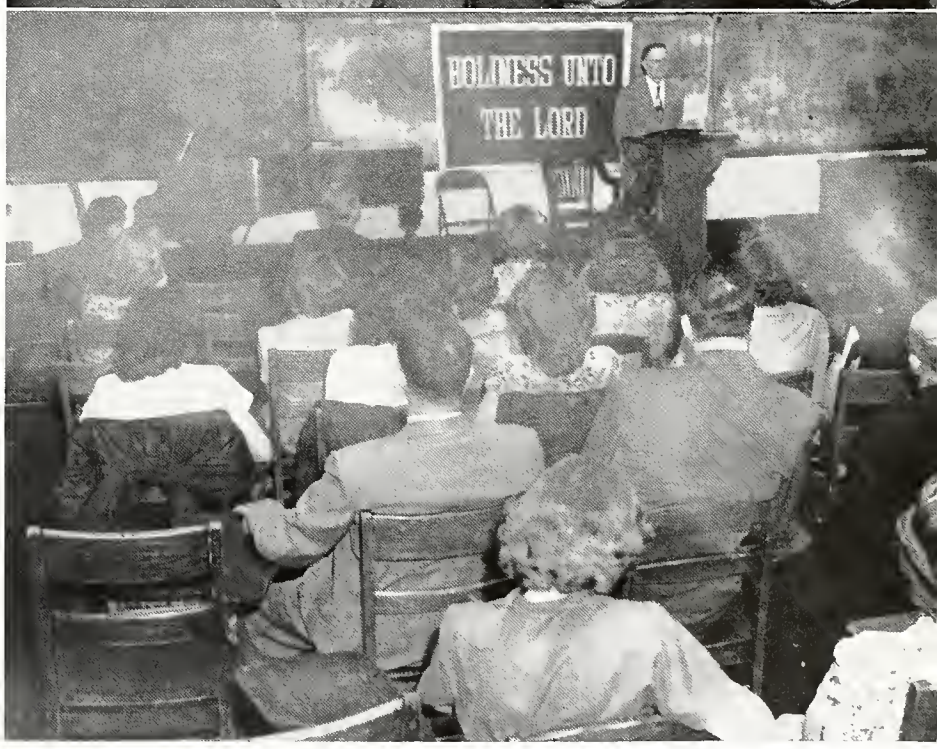
Chapel services provide the "mercy-drops" between our "showers of blessing" at Fall revival and Youth Conference. These services supplement daily devotions in the lives of Christian students as they search their own hearts for the answer to the challenges left them by the speakers. Dr. Hildreth Cross has planned the programs this year.



AMBASSADORS . . .

Ambassadors for Christ serve the students in giving information and help in preparation for the mission field. Professor Kenneth Crose, faculty sponsor, has been assisted by Harold Oechsle, president; Ruth Dixon, vice-president; Lois Deyo, secretary; and Bruce Moore, treasurer. This group arranges the Monday evening services and special projects. Twice a month we hear returned missionaries or see challenging films. Other meetings are given to prayer for missions.

This year Ambassadors started six prayer groups which met each week to pray for a definite field. The cabinet also placed literature on a library shelf for those who are interested in various phases of mission work.



HOLINESS LEAGUE . . .

God said, "Be holy, for I am holy." With this guiding principle the Holiness League has proclaimed the victorious life.

The types of services have included challenging talks on practical topics, seminar discussions of Christians' problems, and heart-searching devotional messages exalting Christ as Lord of all.

The League cabinet consisted of Wm. Wortman, president; Henry Karg, vice president; Valoyce Nordberg, secretary; Bruce Moore, chorister; Lorna Green, pianist; Jim McCallie and Harry Williams, ushers. Dr. Wiebe was the sponsor.

Each Holiness League service with its songs, praises, prayer, special music, practical "nugget", and challenging message was aimed at showing the victorious life in Christ as God's norm, and that it is a practical life of loving service.

REVIVALS . . .

Revival meetings in the fall and in the mid-winter campaigns proved to be of immeasurable value in the lives of Taylor Students. Our fall meetings were headed by Dr. Bob Schuler. He immediately won his way into the hearts of the students. His sincerity and unique style of presentation made him an interesting speaker, one used by the Lord in challenging students to accept Him as Saviour, Lord, and Master, and to put Christ first in everything.

Spiritual refreshing again was ours through the ministry of a handmaiden of the Lord, Dr. Willa Caffray. Her knowledge of the Scriptures was tremendous and she also helped many students to find the Way of Life. The Lord was faithful in all these meetings in honoring His Word. We shall not soon forget these spiritual mountain peaks.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION . . .

The theme for Missionary Conference "Go, carry the Gospel," was shown on the platform through an open door leading to countries of the world.

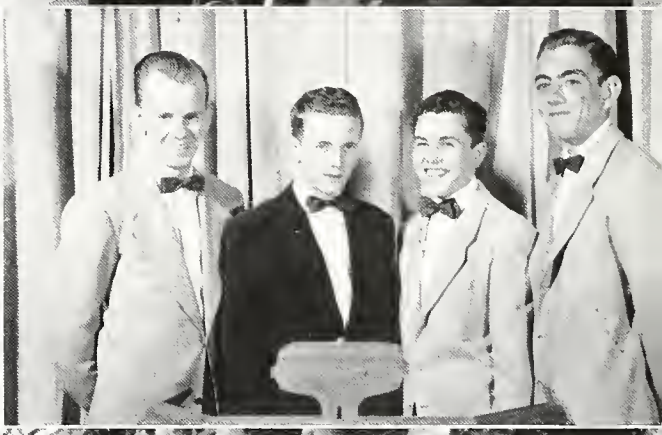
Speakers for the four-day conference were Dr. George Warner, Rev. Wesley Duewell, Rev. R. E. Bressler, and Rev. H. C. Ball. Each missionary challenged us through message and films to the great "fields white unto harvest". Students were given opportunity for personal counsel with each missionary. Discussion groups answered questions about qualifications for the mission field. Pledges were made to help support various mission boards. Many made definite decisions to answer God's call and "Go carry the Gospel."

STUDENT PASTORS . . .

The student pastor is faced with the same responsibilities and problems that face any full-time minister plus the job of meeting the scholastic requirements that any other college student must meet. Between praying over the sick, holding revival services, weekend meetings and raising a family, the student pastor must prepare himself to meet the proverbial examinations that have plagued the souls of college students since the process of higher learning began. Nevertheless, we admire our students who spend of themselves to make Christ known. Some of these hardy souls are Potratz, Norris, Reese, Sturch, Hoyer, Morgan, Mix, Lakin, Neeley, David, and Kavanaugh.

GOSPEL TEAMS . . .

"Make me a blessing to someone today." We thank the Lord for the young people who have consecrated their talents to the Lord and who are willing to give their time to gospel team activities. But there is a satisfaction which comes with a hard job well done, and an inner peace from the Lord when His will is accomplished. Included in the picture to the right are the Gospelaires, Frontiersmen, the Salibas, Athletic Quartet, Singspirators and other groups who have travelled to neighboring towns and states to hold rallies and revival services. God has honored this ministry. All teams are authorized by the Gospel Team Committee composed of Dr. C. J. Bushey, Prof. Nussbaum, Carl Siktberg, Nancy Mudge, and David LeShana.



"Begin with Christ in your heart today,
Begin with Christ.
He will give peace with forgiveness, and
Cleanse every heart.
Won't you take Christ as your Savior,
And His love embrace?
Your life will witness His grace,
When you begin with Christ."

—Loretta Balding

Begin with Christ! Begin with Him; grow in Him: work for Him—these were the emphases of the 1951 Youth Conference under the leadership of Co-Chairmen Marian Wilson and Bob Bell.

Discussion groups, on Saturday and Sunday, helped answer questions in the minds of young visitors. They learned how to begin with Christ—"Ye must be born again." Having begun, they learned how to grow in Him—"I beseech you, therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." And with growth comes service—"Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost."

YOUTH CONFERENCE . . .

Visitors spent any spare moments in an overcrowded dormitory where students endeavored to live lives that would create a desire in others for spiritual birth and growth. Opportunities were afforded for fellowship in long cafeteria lines. And last in the day, communion with God in hall prayer meetings brought Him closer and reminded us that "We are all one in Christ Jesus."

Youth Conference is a time when hundreds of young people, coming to Taylor as our guests, meet Christ face to face. Some meet Him to love Him and walk with Him for the first time. Others find a deeper life and communion with the Saviour. Some at the crossroads in their choice of work see a vision of dark lands and people without a knowledge of Christ, and being called, follow the road to the mission field or Christian service. Youth Conference stands in our minds and our hearts as a time of spiritual blessings and communion. To many it is the beginning of a new life.

COACHING STAFF . . .

Under the excellent coaching of Head Coach Paul P. Williams, Line Coach Percy Schnell, and Backfield Coach Don J. Odle, the Trojans won five out of nine games and experienced another winning season. With the return of many lettermen prospects for a fine season looked good. Loss of All-Conference "Rocky" Jones and his running mate, Stewart, hurt the backfield, but the hard work of the coaching staff gave us a good season.

TROJANS WIN 5 — LOSE 4 — THIRD PLACE IN H. C. C.

Taylors' Trojans, in winning 3 out of 5 conference starts, tied for third palce in the rugged Hoosier Conference for the second straight year. Paced by the fine running of Joe Hawkins, Dave Wheeler, Ken Dunkleberger and Don Granitz along with the brilliant combination of Granitz to Nelson, the Trojans registered wins over Manchester, Earlham, and Indiana Central while losing to Canterbury and Anderson. However, the fine play of the team as a unit brought numerous honors to Taylor U., as Don Granitz and Mal Cofield were chosen on the little "All State" first team—Don as Quarterback on the offensive unit and Mal as linebacker on the defensive team. The spirit and fight shown by these two men of Troy will not soon be forgotten and theirs was an honor well deserved. In addition, Granitz was named to the All-Conference First team as QB, while Nelson made the second team for the second straight year at the end position. At the annual football banquet, the team voted Granitz and Cofield as the most valuable back and most valuable lineman for the year. With the loss of only six seniors, the Trojans look forward to another good season, however, it will be hard to fill the shoes of such stalwarts as "Mauler" Cofield, "Daddy" Parks and Bill Myers, whose fine play for the past three years, has been typical of the Trojan fighting spirit.

Don Granitz paced the scoring attack this year as he punched over six touchdowns and passed for seven more. In addition to this, he set up the other two scores with his bullet-like passes, thereby accounting for all of the Taylor scores. Nelson, who caught five of Granitz' tosses for touchdowns, followed Don in the scoring column with 33 points on five TD's and three extra points.

HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES . . .

Homecoming was a gala affair with many fine displays, a cross country meet with Earlham and a big football game with the Quakers. Plants continued his unbeaten streak while leading the Trojan harriers to a 23-25 win. In the afternoon, in a whale of a football game, the Trojans edged out the Quakers by a 13-6 margin, for their first homecoming win. Led by the fine running and passing of Don Granitz and the spectacular catches of "Fingers" Nelson, the Trojans pushed over the winning marker late in the final period. However, the brilliant defensive work of a rugged forward wall spelled the difference between victory and defeat as Rook, Herber, Gentile, Dunkleberger and "Tiny" Vandenburg broke through repeatedly to crush the Quakers' offense.

Taylor's football Trojans opened fall practice on Sept. 1, 1950, and by the seventh there were 35 candidates bidding for a starting berth. With the addition of some promising freshmen and the return of practically all the lettermen, high hopes were held for this year, however one cannot foresee the bad breaks, injuries and small details that often spell the difference between winning and losing.

The team traveled to Montgomery, W. Virginia for the opening game of the season playing the mighty Golden Bears of West Virginia Tech. The Bears had had an undefeated season in 1949 and with the loss of only three lettermen were installed as twenty-five point favorites. In a dazzling display of deception, running and passing, the Bears roared to a 33-0 halftime margin. However, in the second half, a much bruised, determined and wiser Taylor team took the field and with the brilliant defensive work of Cofield, Hawkins, Wanvig and Gentile, fought the powerful Bears to a standstill with hard tackles, sharp pass defense and just plain guts. It was thrilling to watch the complete reversal of form and the lessons learned from the game were very valuable for the remainder of the season.

On the following Friday, September 22, at Memorial Field, a howling Trojan squad rolled over a stubborn Manchester team by a 26-13 score in a conference game. With Molenkamp and Hawkins running and Granitz hitting Nelson and Dunkelberger with passes, the Trojans chalked up their initial win of the young season.

On September 30 Taylor traveled to Canterbury for a league encounter with the Knights and with the brilliant running of Bob Courtney, Canterbury turned the game into a "knightmare" for the Trojans as they rolled to a 25-0 win. The Trojans lacked scoring punch, stalling four times within the 20 yard line. Fumbles hurt the offensive punch and were partly responsible for the loss.

October 14 was a memorable day in the hearts of Trojan rooters for on that day, the men of Troy turned in their first homecoming win on the brilliant offensive play of Granitz and Nelson and the superb defensive work of the rugged Trojan line. Barram saved the game with a desperate tackle on the twenty yard line in the closing minutes of the game.

A week later the team traveled to Hiram College to meet the boys from Ohio. Fumbles and a blocked kick cost the Trojans three first-quarter TD's. A hardcharging Hiram forward wall doomed the offense and although the Trojans fought desperately, they were outclassed.

Returning once again to Memorial Field, the Trojans kept their home slate clean by edging the Bluffton Beavers in a thrilling game, 6-0. Granitz punched over the lone TD in the third quarter. Superb defensive work bottled up the hard-running Bluffton backs while the terrific running of Don Granitz paved the way to victory.

On a cold bitter day in November, the squad traveled to Anderson to meet the Ravens who were thirsty for revenge. Hard running by Hawkins and Granitz led the Trojans to a 7-6 halftime edge. However, the Ravens, paced by All-Conference Jim Macholtz, punched over two touchdowns in the third quarter, while the offensive machine of the Trojans bogged down as fumbles cost the team a 20-7 loss.

With the season's record even at four up and four down, the Trojans faced the Indiana Central Greyhounds at Memorial Field, for their final game, needing a win for a winning season. In typical Trojan fashion, the team rallied from a 7-0 deficit to score three times and upset the Greyhounds for the first time in Taylor history. Nelson made two spectacular catches on passes from Granitz, while Don smashed his way for ten yards and the third score. It was a bitter contest the whole way but with a fine show of defensive work, the offensive threats of the I.C.C. team were cut down. Joe Hawkins' smashing tackles rocked the stadium from end to end. It was a sweet victory for the six seniors who were playing their last game for the Trojans, to close the season on a winning note.

HOME GAME

TAYLOR 86, HANOVER 67

Two Taylor individual scoring records fell this year to members of the 1950-51 squad. The old individual scoring record for a single game of 32 points held by Howie Stowe toppled to the deadly shooting of left-handed Ted Wright who posted 34 points against Manchester College on January 20. Taylor's tip-in artist, Norm Wilhelmi, set a new school scoring record by netting a total of 392 points during the current year. He was followed by Ross with 341 and Wright with 338.

Three Trojan players received conference honors at the end of the season. Norm Wilhelmi and Ted Wright were named to the HCC All-Conference team and Forrest Jackson received honorable mention. Also, Norm Wilhelmi was chosen as one of fifteen seniors to be picked from all of Indiana's colleges to battle the Indianapolis Olympians in a post-season All-Star game on April 14 at Butler Fieldhouse.

BASKETBALL CHEERLEADERS
Leah Nelson, Tom Spencer, Barbara Norris.

The 1950-51 basketball season at Taylor was the most successful in the history of the school. Under the efficient tutorship of Coach Don Odle the Trojan cagers ran up an impressive record of 21 wins against seven defeats, netting a total of 2214 points against 1877. Average offensive performance was 79 per game, a record good enough to place them fourth among the nation's small colleges in that department. They also led all Indiana colleges in scoring and posted the best victory record by an Indiana college team this season. Four of these wins came on an extended eastern trip over the Christmas holidays when Harpur, Hofstra, Hartwick and Bridgeport dropped to the red-hot Trojans in spite of contrary pre-game prognostications.

STOWE HONAKER | ROSS NELSON | WILHELMI JACKSON | WRIGHT RIGEL | BRAGG HABBEGGAR

The sweetest of all basketball triumphs came after the regular season when Taylor downed Indiana Central in the opening round of the District 21 NAIB Tournament at Terre Haute on March 7. This game, after 27 similar attempts, marks the first victory by a Taylor team over the Greyhounds. A long-standing jinx and a tremendous moral victory were all wrapped up in the last-second bucket by Oral Ross that gave Taylor the 68-66 edge over Indiana Central. Taylor lost the final game to a favored Evansville team, 75-68.

THE FIGHT AGAINST INDIANA CENTRAL!

THE 1951 BASEBALL SQUAD

Prospects for the 1951 baseball season were dimmed by the loss of five seniors through graduation, but with the return of Wayne Frase and other veterans, the Trojans had hopes for a good year. Last year's Trojans, under the fine leadership of coaches Williams and Odle tied with Manchester for the conference crown. Behind the steady hurling of Wayne Frase and Harvey Hernandez and the stickwork of veterans like Granitz, Cofield, Stow, Shy and McIver, the 1950 team had a fine year. Heart-breaker of the season was the 1-0, 11 inning loss to Ball State as Frase pitched ten innings of no hit ball only to lose in the eleventh. The big win of the season was the 6-1 conquest of Wheaton.

The 1951 squad ran into a string of bad luck and dropped eight games while winning six. The inability to get base hits hurt and was largely responsible for the poor record. Bright spots of the season were Frase's 4-0 shutout over Indiana Central as he struck out a record number of twenty batters, and also Frase's 3-0 shutout of a highly-favored Wheaton team. The team started slow but closed by winning the last three in a row.

Outstanding newcomer to the team was Stu Frase, younger brother of Wayne, whose fine play was typical of the never-say-die spirit of the team. Mal Cofield won the batting crown while Wayne Frase was chosen as the most valuable player, and later was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

CROSS-COUNTRY . . .

The cross country team, with the loss of veterans like Joe Beeson and Bernie Golland, faced the new season with some doubts in their minds. However Dick Plants took up the slack and distinguished himself by running through the season unbeaten!! . . Plants romped through the season's schedule and then led the Trojans to a second place in the Hoosier Conference meet by taking first place followed by Raby, Olsen, Alford, and Lucas.

The Trojan harriers lost only one meet to Indiana Central during the regular season and the boys are to be congratulated for their fine performance. Letter winners for this year were Plants, Raby, Olsen, Alford, Lucas, and Jack Jackson.

DICK PLANTS

JOHN RIGEL

TRACK . . .

The 1951 trackmen looked forward to improving their record by participating in ten meets. They were beaten by Rose Poly, Indiana Central, and whipped Manchester and Anderson, the latter for the first time in dual meets. They placed second and last in a triangular and a four-team meet. In the Rose Relays, the Trojans won 17 medals in placing fifth. Olsen, Golland, and Rigel placed in the conference meet and Golland and Plants won medals in the little All-State meet. One record was broken as Barram threw the shot 40 ft., 9 inches. Bright spot of the season was the performance of the distance men, Plants, Golland, and Beeson.

RICHARD RUSSELL

DOUGLAS SCOTT

BOB BEESON

DON BIDDLE

GOLF . . .

This year's golf team dropped all their scheduled matches as graduation left its mark. Despite this, and the miserable spring weather which made practice impossible, the Trojan linksmen, led by Rich Russell and Don Biddle, placed fourth in the Hoosier conference meet to redeem themselves for the season. Other members of the team were Bob Beeson and Doug Scott, who was voted the most valuable player award for the 1951 season. Prospects for next year look good as all the men are scheduled to return.

TENNIS . . .

This year's netmen placed fifth in the Hoosier Conference, dropping six matches while winning two. The netters were paced by sophomore Don Jacobsen, who turned in fine individual performances, of which the outstanding one was a win over Ball State's top man. Lack of practice and poor weather were responsible for the showing, but we anticipate a better season next year with Lettermen Jacobsen, Beeson, and Ross and Freshmen Pelton and Westlake.

MEN'S INTRAMURALS . . .

The intramural coach, Norm Wilhelmi, kept interest and competition keen this year in the intramural sports. Good spirit and sportsmanship seen in the participants made the program click.

Most activities were on Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, and the winning teams were awarded medals at the end of the year. Some sports were individual; some were played on a class team basis; and still other teams were organized on residence basis. This year provided exercise and fun in the intramural softball, football, track, basketball, tennis, table tennis, and checkers.

"T" CLUB . . .

To the men who participate in a varsity sport here at Taylor membership in the "T" Club has and always will be a privilege. The group of athletes who make up the "T" Club are a unique and different type of athlete, for these men have put Christ first in their lives and play ball with this Christian spirit behind them.

The "T" Club was under the able leadership of Mal Cofield this year. He was assisted by vice-president Norm Wheihelmi; sec. treas., Bruce Frase and chaplain, Red Fraser. The outstanding things accomplished this year were the improvement of the tennis courts, sale of concessions, selling of programs for intercollegiate games, and the purchase of the new jackets.

The annual banquet was held this spring and an enjoyable time was had by all. Elections were held and letters were awarded to those who earned them throughout this year.

The purpose of this club is to promote athletics on the campus and to aid in the promotion of the Athletic Department.

FOOTBALL CHEERLEADERS . . .

The football cheerleaders were always on hand at our games to lead the audible support for the Trojans. Their enthusiasm was "catching" and our rousing cheers spurred our team on to victory many times. Here we see the cheerleaders in action at a game at Memorial Field in Marion. They are Gerry Johnson, Marian Wilson, Don Jennings, and Barbara Norris.

TAYLOR TROJANES . . .

This year the girls' basketball team from "up beyond the village border" completed their fifth consecutive undefeated season. The fine spirit and exceptional ability exemplified throughout the year by the girls and their coach was the foundation upon which they succeeded in building a winning team. In Miss Jean Van Horn the team had a conscientious coach, a spiritual leader and a personal friend to lead them on to many victories.

Phyllis Miller, Belle Williams, and Nancy Mudge offered a triple threat on the forward court, while Eva Lou Dillin, Elizabeth Brose, and Mary Dahl set up a defense which often proved to be nearly impenetrable. Of course the reserves were invaluable in their contribution and the victories won must be attributed to the team as a unit. Barbara Rioux, Claudia Groth, Violet Goldsworthy, Darlene Eby, Geraldine Cook, Barbara Owen, Bonnie Baker, Mary Klopfenstein, Francis Danner, Barbara Thamer, Eloise Gerig, Joyce Scarem, Pearl Huffman, Miriam Hegle, Clarabelle Theobald, Ruth Gentile and Donna Peck were all members of the team.

Victories over Indiana Central College, Indiana University, Ball State Teachers College, Huntington College, Franklin College, and Wheaton College highlighted this year's schedule. The fine, wholesome, winning spirit of cooperation and sportsmanship of a united team is to be commended as a worthy representative of an effectively Christian College.

FIRST ROW: Theobald, Galsworthy, Pavlinek, Gerig, Owen, Cook.
SECOND ROW: Eby, Baker, Rioux, Dillin, Brose, Thamer, Porter.
THIRD ROW: Mudge, Miller, Gentile, Dahl, Van Horn, Copley, Groth, Richardson.

WOMEN'S INTRAMURAL . . .

PHYLLIS MILLER AND MARILYN COOK AT TABLE TENNIS

ON THE HARDWOOD

Women's intramural activities were under the able direction of Miss Jean Van Horn, women's athletic director. Many of the intramural sports were in conjunction with the W.A.A.

The season was opened in the fall with intraclass softball, and was followed by a volleyball tournament; which was won by the freshmen girls. In January a four-week basketball tourney was held, and ended with the sophomores as victors.

Other intramural activities for women included swimming, table tennis, badminton, and fencing.

W.A.A. ACTIVITIES . . .

A breakfast cook-out, playdays, intramural tournaments, swim parties, initiation, and an awards banquet were the high points in the activities of the Taylor Women's Athletic Association this year. During an active year on campus, the association was directed by Nancy Mudge, president. Others in the Executive Cabinet were Barbara Rioux, Mary Dahl, Phyllis Miller, Winifred Bookover, and Eva Lou Dillin. Jean Van Horn, Women's Athletic Director of the College, acted as Sponsor.

With an increased membership of active sports-minded girls, the W.A.A. swung into its second year with a softball tourney and the fall activities were climaxed with an outdoor breakfast. Winter sports included basketball, volleyball, table tennis, and tumbling. The new handbook and monthly news sheet "The North Star" kept the girls informed of coming events. Another highlight of the season was a swimming program initiated for the first time with the cooperation of Barbara Rioux, qualified Red Cross instructor, and the Muncie Y.W.C.A.

The W.A.A. participated in three playdays, the first being a basketball playday at Wheaton College on March 3, in which Taylor won both of their games. Next, a group of W.A.A. girls traveled to Ball State Teachers College where they copped second place in a volleyball tourney, outscoring Indiana University and Ball State but losing to Hanover College. On March 31, the W.A.A. held its first playday by inviting Manchester and Ball State Colleges and Indiana University to participate in a basketball tournament. Taylor usurped first place, and had a program appreciated by all, thanks to the efforts of Francis Danner, General Chairman.

SENIOR MOGULS . . .

We are the senior class. Now we don the cap and gown. In a very marked sense we are joyous over the fact that the sheepskin is ours, but our steps are a bit hesitant as reminiscing we push back the curtain of those years that were. We are going to take some of Taylor with us always.

Solid enjoyment was the order of this our senior year as we remember our skating party, the Hobo party, Skip Day to Cincinnati, and the Junior-Senior Formal.

LEADERS OF THE JUNIOR SET

President .....Ken Dunkleberger
Vice President .....Mary Dahl
Secretary .....Doris Oswalt
Treasurer .....Jack Patton
Chaplain .....Red Fraser
Social Chairman .....Mary Jones
Co-Social Chairman .....Stewart Cuthbertson
Sponsor .....Don Odle

Advancing toward the senior status, these juniors may well count this year's moments golden. Having to their credit some unforgettable social events and officers of quality, they have gained the right to rest until senior duties will again tap the resource of the class. Memorable to all junors will be their Friday night variety program, their class play, their "enchanted evening" of banqueting at Wabash, and their participation in providing new furniture and decoration for the parlor. Proudly they have worn keys as symbols of progress.

We, the sophomores, top half of the underclassmen, advanced this year to the halfway mark in our college careers. Led by capable officers, we grew in Christ and had good social fellowship together at our skating party with the freshmen, at our "sock" party, and on other occasions as well. This year we received sweaters with the sophomore shield; these we wore with honor.

TAYLOR UNIVERSITY . . .

Students like Taylor because it gives fully accredited rating in a warm, Christian atmosphere. At Taylor students study, worship and play in a relationship that is democratic, wholesome, and interesting. Here students prepare for the future on a beautiful campus that is rich with traditions built up since the school was founded over a hundred years ago. Write for free view book and catalog.
